ITINERARY IN DETAIL

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

Once you arrive at the airport of Kathmandu, one of our representatives will meet you there and greet you in a traditional Nepalese style- with a fresh garland and a humble Namaste. Then, through the winding alleys of Kathmandu, he will guide you to your hotel. Freshen up and take rest.

In the evening, your guide will meet you at your hotel. He will point out all the necessary briefings about the trip. Have a good night sleep.

Day 2: Kathmandu to Pokhara

The distance between Kathmandu and Pokhara is just 200 km. But, it takes over 7 hours to reach there. Much of this delay is caused by the winding highway and unpredictable traffic jams. However, this journey is worth undertaking. The views of the lush valleys and raging rivers enhance the quality of the adventure. Once you reach Pokhara, it is better to catch an evening walk to Phewa Lake.

Day 3: Pokhara Sightseeing

Pokhara sightseeing is one of the major highlights of this trek. Boating in the serene Phewa Lake, under the shadow of the white Machhapuchre (Fishtail like) peak, is indeed very much peaceful and enjoyable activity in Pokhara. Then, drive to Davis fall to see the raging water falling to the never-ending depth furiously. It is a thrilling experience.

Within a while, you will head on towards the International Mountain Museum in Pokhara to see and analyze the historical mountain events, including the first climb on the Everest by Tenzing Norgay Sherpa and Sir Edmund Hillary. If possible, you will also visit the wonderful Barahi Temple, famous for its unstoppable religious rituals. In the late afternoon, explore the World Peace Stupa, sitting on top of the hill, overlooking the unavoidable glimpses of the mountains. It is worthy of everything.

Then, return to your hotel for the overnight stay.

Day 4: Sarangkot Sunrise & Drive to Kathmandu

Early in the dark of the morning, catch a scenic hike to the Sarangkot hill station. The views of the sunrise appear spectacular from there. As the sun gradually mounts over the horizon, the snowy peaks of the Machhapuchre and Annapurna slowly undress the white to put on the golden shade of the sun. It appears so sensational that some of the spectators turn emotional at the median phase of this golden color transformation. The peaks of the Annapurna I, Annapurna II, Annapurna III, Annapurna IV, Machhapuchre, and Dhaulagiri appear distinct from the hilltop of the Sarangkot.

After spending some quality time on top of the hill, descend back to the Pokhara for breakfast. After that, drive to Kathmandu on a private Jeep for the next 7 hours (approx.)
